ANDERSON J. TRUE DEAD

Well Known Traveling Salesman and Former Dover Man Passed Away At Portsmouth Yesterday.

Mr. Anderson Jennings True, aged about 50 years, and a native and former resident of Dover and vicinity, died at Portsmouth, Ohio, yesterday after a brief illness. Mr. True traveled out of Maysville for Thompson & McAttee and was one of the most popular and successful salesmen on the road.

He was a son of the late Samuel S. True and Mary Dobyns True of Dover and was a cousin of Mr. W. A. Lauzling of this city. He is survived by his wife, who was a Miss Inskoop of Russellville, Ohio, and several children; a four brothers: Arthur F. True, Sam N. True and Joseph True of Dover, Graham True, of Latonia and one sister, Mrs. John Boan of Portsmouth.

The burial will be at Dover, but the time is not announced.

REV. H. J. RAMEY CALLED

From Life's Activities—Was the Father of Mrs. Wm. Mearns of this City and Was Venerable Retired Minister.

Mrs. William Mearns of East Forest avenue received a telegram yesterday conveying the sad news of the death of her father, the venerable Rev. H. J. Ramey at Salt Lake, Ky. Rev. Ramey was one of the oldest retired ministers of the Kentucky Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church. He is well known by many Maysville people who saw and heard him preach at Ruggles Campmeeting in former years. He with Rev. H. C. Northeott was the founder and organizer of this well known campmeeting. During his ministry, which covered many years, he served churches nearly all over Kentucky. He was a fine preacher. His exposition of the Gospel was always heard with interest. He did a work for his Savior and the church that will tell for eternity. Besides Mrs. Mearns he is survived by his wife and two sons, Joseph of Salt Lake and Prof. John Ramey of Ashland. Mr. N. T. Bratton of the Maysville post office is a grandson of the deceased. The telegram gave no news of funeral arrangements. Mrs. Mearns left on the afternoon train for Salt Lake.

Don't Clean House--Put on Your Hat

Come down street and say to us—"I want a machine that will save time and strength, make house-cleaning easy for me." We'll show you the HOOVER!

Say to us—"I want a suction sweeper that will get out all the dust and dirt embedded in my rugs and carpets; as well as the lint, thread and hair that make my floor coverings look dingy. I want a machine that cleans thoroughly." Put the HOOVER to the test!

Say to us—"I want the machine that does this work easier, quicker and better than all others." And then we will prove to you that "You need the HOOVER!"

HOOVER SWEEPING: The brush loosens hair, thread, lint, sewingroom litter, and lifts the crushed nap to its correct position, thereby restoring the original colors to floor coverings.

HOOVER SHAKING: The brush loosens and raises to the surface all the embedded dirt, making its removal easy for the powerful suction.

HOOVER SUCTION: The suction raises the rug a quarter of an inch from the floor—then the revolving brush vibrates the raised portion, loosens and picks up the embedded dirt. The powerful suction then easily draws it into the medicated dust bag where it remains until intentionally emptied.

Housekeepers who once use this Electric Sweeper will never be satisfied with any other nor with the laborious and inefficient old way of cleaning carpets. You can rent this sweeper from us for $1 a day

ADVERTISING BY PHYSICIANS.

Following the midwinter Conference on Public Health, Legislation and Medical Education of the American Medical Association, held in Chicago, February 23 and 24, numerous news-items and editorial comments appeared in the public press regarding one of the papers presented at the Conference. The substance of the newspaper items was that the American Medical Association was considering the revision of its principles of ethics with a view to removing or modifying the restrictions placed on individual physicians as to personal advertising. Some of the reports stated that revision of the principles of ethics would be taken up at once, and that an overwhelming majority of members of the Association were in favor of such a change. So far as we know, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, there is no indication of any change in the position of the American Medical Association on this question. The reports in the newspapers were due to apprehension of the character of the paper in on and the intent of the writer.

The paper was an argument for a better understanding and closer co-operation between the medical profession as an organization and the newspaper publishers as a class. The author did not attempt to discuss the question of personal advertising on the part of physicians; the proposition forth and defended in the paper and presented to the Conference was something entirely different from personal exploitation; it was a plea for closer cooperation between medical organizations and the press for the public good, and not personal benefit. It suggested that the expert knowledge of the medical profession could be utilized by the public press in two ways: first, by dissemination through the newspapers of scientific knowledge which would be of value to the public in preventing disease, and second, in placing at the disposal of those newspapers which desired it the expert knowledge of the medical profession in separating worthy and reputable from dishonest and disreputable institutions which might seek publicity through the newspapers.

Of these two important activities one has already been inaugurated by the American Medical Association, and the other is worthy of serious consideration. Neither of them, however, has the slightest bearing on the question of personal exploitation of physicians through newspaper advertising or by any other means. An honorable physician could not conscientiously advertise for personal business, for the same reason that the honorable minister and lawyer would not advertise. A professional man has no commodity to sell; his only assets are his scientific knowledge and his personal ability; and he who claims to possess greater knowledge or greater skill than his professional associates—whether physicians, preachers or lawyers—is an egotist, or worse, and forfeits the respect of both his professional brethren and his fellow citizens.

A HINT TO THE UNEMPLOYED.

In a statement commending the New York Globe for devoting a whole page daily to free advertisements of "Situations Wanted" for the help of the unemployed, the American Protective Tariff League suggests that the Globe place in the center of this free advertising page a condensed statement telling the jobless how they came to lose their jobs and how to get back and hold their jobs. The League says that it is eminently proper that good advice should go with benevolence, and adds that if the Globe will combine the two in such a way as to diminish the probability of a recurrence of the conditions which have prompted its large measure of practical help to the unemployed, the ultimate beneficence of its efforts will be materially enhanced.

The statement which the tariff league suggests that the Globe use reads: "You Lost Your Job Because of the Underwood Free-Trade Tariff. The Way to Get Back Your Job is to Help Get Back a Protective Tariff."

NO GENERAL MARKET FOR AEROPLANES.

A few years ago it was predicted that in a short time aeroplanes would be in general demand and use. Maybe they will be some day, but developments of the last year or two fail to indicate it. Take conditions in the business in Italy, for instance.

The aeroplane industry, which was established four or five years ago and which had developed markedly by 1912 in Turin, its center, lost ground during 1913, and the outlook is quite unfavorable. Aeroplanes for sporting purposes are not in demand, and the Italian Government uses almost exclusively machines imported from France. The total Italian army equipment in 1914 will comprise some 180 aeroplanes.

The Wright business was capitalized at a million and men of great wealth were interested. It was predicted that an enormous factory would soon be needed to meet the American requirements. It has not come and it will not come until the great problem of stabilization is successfully met. A few adventurous souls have bought aeroplanes for their personal sport, but most rich American sportsmen still find the fast automobile exciting enough for their requirements.—Ohio Republican News.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE.

The Biggest Lion.

He was the hero of the day,
This man of great attraction;
But wait! What's this that draws a crowd?
Great heavens! Watch his action!

The Henfield-Endways' semi-monthly lion reception was at its height.

Wit, beauty, talent, genius flowed like water. It was the most dazzling successful of all Mrs. V. Pierpont Drexel-Hyphen Henfield-Endways' many famous lion receptions.

The decorations, which alone cost Henfield-Endways a quarter of a million of the ninety-eight million his grandfather made manufacturing "Diamond Spray" shower baths for society dogs, consisted of trellises of amber Fiddleblooms, with live fire-flies, each with a thread tied about its tail and fastening it to a twig flashing amid the blossoms.

But what great man can this be who has gathered around him so thick a crowd of worshippers, all gaping for a look?

'Tis no single man, prying reader. The open-mouthed crowd surrounds a little group composed of Gen. Beeswax Issinger, only living survivor of the Revolutionary War; Clarence M. Sizzlewatt, discoverer of the Sizzlewatt Waters of Perpetual Youth, and Duncan K. Tisick, the eminent surgeon who has restored a man to life by amputating his head and replacing it with the head of a Kingwazian armadillo. Small wonder that three such notable men, all in a bunch in the same place, should attract the wit and beauty of the assemblage as a Saxamason bar attracts the klunkfuss.

But lol! A frown gathers on the faces of the three famous men! The crowd has deserted them. The hero of the hour has entered, superbly late as usual, and is already the mute but glorious center of attraction.

With the exception of Gen. Issinger, Mr. Sizzlewatt and Dr. Tisick, every guest is surrounding Bernarda, introducer of the Bernarda maxixe!—Louisville Times.

DOCTOR SAID HE HAD DROPSY

Some time ago I had an attack of dropsy which finally settled in my kidneys and bladder. I doctored with the doctors and they claimed I had dropsy. I tried other remedies and got no relief from any of them. My condition was such that I was unable to work for about two months and the annoying symptoms caused me a great deal of trouble and pain. I was hardly able to turn over in bed. Seeing one of your Almanacs, I decided to give Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root a trial and after taking several bottles was able to resume my work again. I cannot say too much in praise of your Swamp-Root as the results in my case were truly wonderful.

Yours very truly,

MOUNTAIN LAND BOOSTED.

Farm land assessment in Magoffin, Martin and Leslie counties were raised 10 per cent. by the State Board of Equalization last week. In Leslie County the total assessment of land dropped from $1,904,945 to $1,550,639 this year, while town lots were assessed at $57,820, an increase of $3,110. Magoffin County land assessments decreased from $1,101,191 to $987,311 and town lots increased from $48,185 to $54,450. In Martin County the farm land assessments fell from $979,434 to $904,254. Town lots were assessed at $70,995, an increase of $705.

BULBS FURNISHED CITIZENS

Marion Officials Show How Civic Beauty Can Be Boosted.

The city health officer at Marion, O., has introduced an innovation which will go a long way to further civic beautification. He has announced that he has ready for distribution twenty-one bushels of flower bulbs which will be given away to citizens who desire to beautify their lawns. Certainly such an offer will be accepted generally by the citizens, and the result of this proposition will bring for Marion many compliments later on in the season.

West End Property for Sale

We have for sale some very desirable homes on West Second St., also some vacant lots.

Frame house of eight rooms at No. 478 West Second St. This house is modern throughout. We think the best house in Mayville at the price we are offering it for.

Brick house of seven rooms No. 640 West Second St. We can't see why one would figure on building, when you can buy a home as complete as this one for the price we have on this place.

Frame house of six rooms, No. 450 W. Second St. This house has gas, and is not a high price home. If you want a medium priced place let us tell you of this home.

The home of Mr. D. A. Emmitt on West Second St., with about one and one half to two acres of ground. Mr. Emmitt has bought a farm and wants to sell this home, therefore we have the price absolutely right on this property. One has only to look about to see the great improvements that are going on in the West End, so why not take advantage of the situation, and buy a home in the section of the city where property is advancing?

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

BASEBALL, THE MOST POPULAR OF ALL SPORTS.

By UNCLE DUDLEY.

There may have been a time when there was no baseball in the United States, but not even the oldest citizen remembers it. In fact, baseball has become so much of a matter of course that we have come to look upon it as something that has always been here.

Baseball is easy to take an interest in, and its lesson is learned without conscious effort on the part of the learner. Thus, a person may be ignorant as to who is Governor of his State, but if he does not know all the details of the World's Series last year he is probably in some home for the defective.

It is known that base ball was played at least ninety years ago. Just prior to his death several years ago, the late John W. Oliver, an able newspaper editor, a rational reformer, a real orator, and, last but not least, a baseball enthusiast gave the following facts concerning baseball as it was played ninety years ago:

"The game was called baseball, just as it is today. Our two captains of the opposing sides tossed the bat paddle we used instead of a bat and when it was caught, each placed his hands higher and higher until the one whose hand covered the top won first chance to bat and first choice of players. The other captain picked the boy he considered next best, and so it went until the sides had been chosen. Just as there are four bases today, so there were four bases then. But there was no pitcher. The man at the plate flung the ball into the air and batted it, as is today done in practice work by the big teams. When he hit the ball with the paddle, he ran, and all on his side who were on the bases ran likewise.

"We put the runners out by hitting them with the ball, but you must know that the ball of those days wasn't the dangerous missile it is now. It was made of yarn ravelled from old socks, and it didn't hurt when it hit you."

Mr. Oliver was firmly of the opinion that baseball was an entirely independent game and not an evolution of the old English game of rounders. He said that America was entitled to the glory that goes with the originating of baseball.

But whether of native or foreign origin, the fact remains undisturbed that it has been popular and progressive. That the game has had a tremendous influence upon the nation cannot be questioned.

On the eve of the opening of the American League 1913 championship season, President Ben Johnson presented to President Woodrow Wilson and Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall engraved gold season passes to all American League games. In a letter to President Johnson gratefully acknowledging receipt of the gold pass, the Vice-President said: "I am deeply interested in baseball because it is a fascinating game, because it is the great American sport, and because it sets an example to the business and professional men of America which is as valuable as the preachments of politicians, namely, that no success is lasting or permanently valuable which does not result from play."

The dirt accumulated on the base ball diamond is clean. A Democrat cannot say that for all other diamonds in America."

Bishop William P. Anderson, of Cincinnati, head of the conference in which Indianapolis is included, told a meeting of Methodist men at Indianapolis, Ind., on October 20, that they must adopt the methods of the major base ball leagues in working for the success of the national convention of Methodist men which was held at Indianapolis October 28 to 31. Said Bishop Anderson:

"We are told that the science of base ball is the most perfect in existence. This only goes to show what may be done with continued effort and unity of action. We men of the Methodist Church must adopt the methods of the major leagues and work in unity with a certain aim in view. Our aim, as in base ball, should be to win and we will win if you men will get into this game with the determination with which a professional base ball player enters a game of base ball."

It is said that the late Henry Chadwick, who was known as the Father of Baseball, and who was the first baseball reporter, had, at first, great trouble in getting morning papers to publish his reports of games, but after the experiment had been started, the editors wondered how they had gotten along without box scores. Finally the New York followers of the game declared that they could not wait until the next morning to see the accounts, so the afternoon extras made their appearance.

From the yarn covered ball of Mr. Oliver's day base ball has advanced rapidly, until now in this year of 1914 it is set before us with all the modern improvements of pad and mask, cork center balls, $25,000 players, palace parks, and whatever else that can be obtained.

In the words of Mr. W. W. Aulick, "Base ball is because it is right."

ANALYZING THE TEAM.

By UNCLE DUDLEY.

Matched up, man for man, position against position how do the Hurley Cubs and Colts compare? If both teams could run exactly true to form, what might be expected from a close study of the stars? Both clubs as yet are utterly uncertain quantities. It is impossible to predict how the new men will turn out or what sort of work will be done by the old players.

Furthermore, each team has a new manager; each team was disabled by players being either drafted or sold, and each team has been shifted and and each team has been shifted and so subtraction that the most reckless would not risk a prophecy.

Of course we cannot say just how strong the Lexington team is, as we have never seen them in action this year, but we can give a few facts in regard to the strength of the local team.

Catchers.

This department has been strengthened materially by the addition of John Mace, last year with the Richmond team of the Virginia League. He ranked third in the catching department with a fielding average of .977. He batted .352 in seventy games.

In addition to Mace we have John T. McDaniels of last year's team. McDaniels ranked fifth as a receiver with an average of .985 and hit for an average of .247 in several games.

Thus the Cubs are far superior in this department, comparing them with last year.

Pitchers.

The pitchers are an uncertain problem and no one can say just how strong they really are, but with seven men still here, it looks as if Manager Chapman ought to be able to pick out four good men. Those still reserved are Timothy Thompson and George Rehlamp of last year's team and George Linnie, Bud Funk, Frank Linson, Dan Harding and Tom Crowe on the recruit list. Crowe is the only southpaw on the roster. He is also a good outfielder and a hard hitter.

Infielders.

With Jack Barrett on first, Bob Dietrich (better known as Rich), on second, Charles ("Chuck") Curtis on third, and Frank Clauser and Jack Curley fighting it out for short, this department looks stronger than ever before. If Clauser remains it leaves an unbroken infield and this means much to a team, as they know just what to expect from each other and it makes the teamwork more perfect.

We can therefore say that the infield should be at least fifteen per cent. stronger than last year.

Outfielders.

The Maysville outfield is lots stronger than ever before. There was never any doubt about the playing of Richard Donovan in center field, and with the addition of Manager Ollie Chapman in left and Fred ("Humpty") Badel in the right garden and John Netter as a substitute, the Cubs present an outfield that will probably not be excelled by any other team in the league. If they run true to form, each man should hit in the .300 neighborhood.

"WE WILL BE OUT THERE FIGHTING."

By Manager Ollie Chapman.

I'm not claiming anything—not one thing in regards to position or pennant. All I have to say is that we will be out there every day giving them the best we have in stock, and trying to win every game.

I have a good club and it ought to win, and I am sure that with a change or two we will be up there fighting with the leaders. I have a good game bunch who are hustlers and full of pep, and they will make them all step some.

It is going to be a long race, and, of course, we are bound to lose some times, but I feel that I have a bunch of men who will make us good a stand as any club in the league.

RIGHT OFF THE BAT.

The Portsmouth Times promises to be quite metropolitan. The live sport sheet will issue a sporting extra daily, and give all Ohio State games by innings.

Tom Crowe has landed a job in Maysville and will play there this year. All the fans of the city rejoice to know that Dr. Tom has stayed in the league but they regret to think what may happen when in the last of the ninth with the bags full if Tom comes to the plate—Brouton Register.

No one of the local players has met with even a slight accident so far, but when the fans realize the good fortune they go to knocking on wood for there is not telling when something serious will happen to break the spell of good luck that has characterized the training season which is rapidly drawing to a close. All now hope for reasonably good weather during those dangerous first ten days of May.

Chillicothe, often termed the Babes, has set a precedent in minor league baseball. The management filed application Saturday afternoon, with the State Industrial commission for liability insurance on all players under a Babe contract. The Ohio State league resembles a major circuit more and more. The insurance requested by Chillicothe on its ball players is the same as that under which employees are insured in West Virginia under the Workmen's Compensation act.

"Opening Day."

'Tis "Base Ball Day" in Maysville town, And many players of renown Are here assembled for the fray On this grand "Opening Day."

The parade starts at 2 o'clock, And then the people all will flock To witness all the big display On this grand "Opening Day."

Mayor Lee will pitch the horseshoe first, And almost make his muscles burst; And he'll be so happy and so gay On this grand "Opening Day."

At three bells sharp the "ump" will appear, And looking at the horseshoe sphere, Will announce the batteries, and then we'll say, " 'Tis due to be alive on 'Opening Day'."

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consultant) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

"GOOD NEWS"—PASTOR WIL-HOYTE'S ELOQUENT SERMON.

The word "gospel" means "God's spell," good spell or in a simple term
"Good news." Brethren, I declare unto you the gospel—how that Christ died
for our sins according to the scriptures;
and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures." This is the gospel in epitome: too many misunderstand this word and call the entire Bible "The gospel."

No better news ever came to any family than the good tidings that are wrapped up in this gospel of salvation.
Well did the angels sing "Behold I bring you glad tidings," and yet people run from the gospel as though it was exceedingly sad news. If a message of misfortune or death will wrap a home in mourning, why should not this "Good news" fill it with joy?

Essentially, the gospel is both Destructive and Constructive. It is just as essential to destroy the weeds in the garden, as it is for us to aid the construction of the vegetable life, in other ways.

The Destructive Work of the Gospel.
The gospel destroys sin, which includes the individual's sin—that sin which dooms this world to eternal destruction. Poor sinner do you want forgiveness? "We have redemption
through His Blood, even the forgiveness of sins." (Eph. 1:7). Do you want to escape death, which is the certain result of sin? Listen—"O death where is thy sting?" "O grave where is thy victory?" This cry of victory over death, is possible for those who accept Christ, for He has taken the sting out of death; and as the wasp becomes harmless when its stinger is destroyed, so death loses its terror for those who accept Christ.

It destroys our shame—Listen to Paul in Rom. 1:16. "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ." Well could Paul say this, even at Rome where Caesar and Cicero had swayed the masses. One of the great enemies of Christ, is shame. Tell a man he shall not go to church and he will defy you, but just let the worldly point the finger of shame at him and he can't stand it.
Many men, who would face a cannon,
will fall before the harlot and her sneering jests. Thousands have been shamed into committing sins and even into death and hell, but never has ONE been shamed out of hell. Christ says he will not be ashamed of you, if you will be true and acknowledge Him here.

What wonderfully "Good news" to know that the gospel destroys the judgment for the Christian. "There is therefore now NO condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus."
"Verily, verily I say unto you, he that heareth my word and believeth on Him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall NOT come into condemnation, but is passed from death unto life." So Christ has blotted out my sins and they shall not be exposed in that terrible judgment day—yes! He has already been judged for me, and I go free. Is not this good news? He that believeth
HATH—HATH—HATH EVERLAST-ING LIFE.

The Constructive Work of the Gospel.
"There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth." It is not good news to know that the gospel brings repentance, with out which all must perish?
"Your sorrow shall be turned to joy." Yes the gospel brings "Joy unspeakable and full of glory" and a
"Peace of God which passeth knowledge." Would it not make you happy to know that you were saved and safely kept for time and eternity? Then listen
—"We are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation." "He
that believeth on ME HATH everlasting life." Again, "My sheep hear My voice and I know them, and they follow Me; and I give unto them eternal life, and they shall NEVER perish, neither shall any pluck them out of My hand." Is this sad news? Did the angels bring us bad news? Then let the Christian rejoice and let the poor

"Father grows younger every

The old portrait taken twenty years ago, made him look so serious and old fashioned—not a bit like he really is.

day.

lost sinner take courage, for there is happiness and life through believing in Him.

"It is the POWER of God unto Salvation." When we read "All have sinned and come short of glory" and again that "We have ALTOGETHER become filthy or unprofitable" we tremble because of such a terrible togetherness, such a cumulative power for evil and destruction. But this "Good News" tells us that this is a "Whosoever" gospel with more power than all of the combined forces for sin and death. God shows us the picture of a universal togetherness in sin, in order to magnify the real power of His gospel. Power to save—oh, shout it until the angels shall hear and answer you,
and before the echo dies away—shout,
it holds! EVERLASTING LIFE.

"To everyone"—Yes the gospel is good news for it has constructed a world-wide redemption. Society is severely exclusive, but the gospel is wonderfully inclusive. No sect, color or condition of humanity can hold a monopoly on salvation, "for He has redeemed us unto God by His blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people and nation." Your being poor and unlettered will bar you from the upper ten of society, but poor uneducated sinner take courage—the gospel is for
ALL. "To everyone that believeth."
And just to think that it is in reach of your means—"IT IS FREE." And the Spirit and bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is thirsty, Come. And WHO SOEVER will, let him take of the water of life freely." For your hate He will turn to love, and for your crown of thorns, He offers you a "Crown of life." Good news! GOOD NEWS!
Accept it sinner and live.

Baseball Season

All around the big circuit the great and only game is under way today. Of course, first and foremost in local interest is the struggle between the Burley Cubs and the Celts. At Huntington the rebuilt Blue Sox will meet the champion Charleston team. At Chillicothe
the newly organized Newport club will skate into the Babes. At Ironton the Portsmouth aggregation will do battle with the Snailers.

The Maysville club spent this morning
in resting up, as there was no need either to risk straining any muscle or spoiling the beautifully rolled park.
They were, apparently, far from nervous, and seemed to think that the speed and trickery that Manager Chapman had shown them would put the Lexington team on the blink.

Manager Chapman had made no definite selection of pitchers, and said he would be governed by weather conditions and the condition of the hurlers
when they rehearsed before the battle.

The preliminary program of ceremonies before the game will, as usual,
be elaborate and very much to the high-brow pattern. As is the law, the Augusta band will wobble sweet
"moosie" and the athletes will parade around the field, keeping step till they forget which is the left leg, and the multitude will blast with childish glee.

Everyone Should Go Out Early So They Can Kid the Players on the Opposing Team.

President Keith and Mayor Lee, sitting in boxes, will lift their hats to the admiring throng at regular intervals of 38 seconds.

Just before the struggle Mayor Lee will say a few well-chosen words, after which, either he or President Keith will toss the first ball, thus starting the season.

Mr. Charles Schaffer will be the van-pire of the afternoon, or, if it may suit
you better, the umpire.

The line up of the two teams today
will be as follows:

Maysville.
Bodie, right field.
Chapman, left field.
Curtis, third base.
Barrett, first base.
Donovan, center field.
Dieterich, second base.
Chausser or Curley, short stop.
Mace or McDaniel, catcher.
Thompson, Linne or Rehkamp, pitcher

Lexington.
Cain, center field.
Konnick, short stop.
McEvoy, first base.
Dawson or Blackwell, catcher.
Crouch, right field.
Guy, left field.
Brown, second base.
Fisher, third base.
Hartwig or Black, pitcher.

Lexington Team Is Ready.
(This Morning's Lexington Herald.)

The Lexington team will leave this morning on the early train for Maysville, after a day's rest yesterday, confident of taking about three of the four games to be played in the river town.
Fourteen men will make the trip, including Manager Guy, Cain, Crouch and Goodman, outfielders; Dawson and Blackwell, catchers; McEvoy, Brown, Konnick and White, infielders, and Black, Hartwig, Fletcher and Trimmer, pitchers. Infielder Fisher and Catcher Ellis were yesterday released, cutting the squad down to the fourteen men which the club is allowed to carry through the season, and no cutting down later will be necessary unless some new players are added.

Manager Guy yesterday after-noon
said he had every confidence in his team. He said that although he did not know the quality of the playing of the league, he was certain, judging

ELECTRIC SIGNS!

The distinguishing air of quality which a first-class Electric Sign gives to a store is the element which gives a sign its greatest value as an advertising medium and investment. The impression it makes is good. It blazes forth to the public that there is business enterprise, merchandise and methods up-to-date. It affects the entire atmosphere of the business district. The stranger says, "It is a live town," and publishes it abroad.
It is the Sign of the Times.

TO THE
Young Men and Boys

We wish to say a few words on a very important subject to them. Young men want smart, lively, young styles, something smart and distinctive in pattern, color and cut. All this you get when you deal at the "Good Clothes Man's"
Store and in addition you get sterling quality in the goods which gives the Young man the service and economy of wear he ought to get. Before you buy any Clothing or Shoes see Ours.

To Praise

as you certainly must, after sampling
our exceptionally fine Rye Whisky.
Every connoisseur of good, pure and wholesome Rye makes this brand his favorite after the first trial, because it pleases his palate and never gives him a headache. We are soliciting family trade and know that every house
should have a bottle of this Rye in case of emergency.
